SUBMISSION AND REST. The camel at the close of day Kneels down upon the sandy plain, To have his burden lifted off, And rest again.

My soul, thou too shouldst to thy knees When daylight draweur to a close And let thy Master lift thy load And grant repose.

Else how canst thou tomorrow meet, With all tomorrows work to do. If thou thy burden all the night Dost carry through? The camel kneels at break of day.
To have his guide replace his load.
Then rises up anew to take
The desert road.

So thou shouldst kneel at morning's That God may give thy daily care, Assured that He no load too great Will make thee bear. Matthew xi.: 25, 30.

Out of the dark a trembling star; Blown from the sea a mist; A whisper of West wind tossed afar, And a rose by sunlight kissed.

Up from the earth a glimmering spark; Out of the sky a gleam, The choirs of Heaven in the song of a lark,
And love in a maiden's dream,
